Meet Kayla Graham. Her role as Operations Coordinator at Atlanta Fire Rescue Foundation (AFRF) brings varied responsibilities and an opportunity to lead the equitable and sustainable growth of the dynamic programs that are the core of the organization. These initiatives include, Affordable Housing Initiative, Fire Station Fund (previously Adopt a Fire Station), Tuition Assistance Program (TAP), and Youth Pathways: AFRD Cadet Program and Camp Ignite. This also encompasses the signature fundraising event Breakfast With Our Bravest, and community events such as the Station 16 Annual Holiday Party and others.

Most recently Kayla was the Experience Coordinator with City of Refuge, a leading transformation center for individuals and families in crisis. She also has worked at International Rescue Committee, a non-profit providing refugee resettlement services, as well as a paralegal at Steffas and Associates, P.C., an immigration, and adoption law firm.

Kayla grew up in Fort Worth, Texas, and moved to Georgia three years ago to pursue a job and an education. She earned her bachelor's degree in International Affairs with a concentration in Diplomatic and Government Service from Kennesaw State University. She enjoys painting, traveling, hiking, and Dallas Stars games.
